1921 Election of the Town Mayor/Chair

The Town Clerk gave her thanks to the Mayor, Cllr Mrs S Murray, for agreeing to remain in office during the pandemic and for all her support. Apologies were given to the incoming Officers for the delay in confirming their appointments due to the pandemic.

Cllr A Buckfield was elected as the Town Mayor, Admiral of the Port and Chair of Council for the 2020/2021 mayoral year. The majority voted in favour of the appointment; Cllr Murray abstained.

The Mayor read out the oaths of office for the Town Mayor and Admiral of the Port of Haverfordwest. Cllr Buckfield will sign the declaration of office tomorrow.

The Mayor appointed his wife Mrs G Buckfield as his Mayoress.

The Mayor gave a vote of thanks to the outgoing Mayor, Cllr Murray, which was fully supported by Council.

Cllr Murray responded to the vote of thanks. The speech gave an overview of the commitment required to fulfil the role of Mayor and a Town Councillor. She gave thanks to Council, Town Clerk and staff for their support. Cllr Murray thanked her husband Mr P Murray for his continual support. The beginning of the town regeneration had seen the delivery of the new library with gallery, including the Cleddau Reaches walk and Priory Saltings for which Jon Collier was praised and thanked for achieving during his term as a fellow Town Councillor and his continuing support with the project. Cllr Murray reflected on her achievements during her term in office as Mayor and as a Town Councillor, including volunteering with Pembrokeshire Next Door, improving relationships with Pembrokeshire County Council, Festival Week and the return of the Carnival.

RESOLVED Cllr A Buckfield is elected as Town Mayor, Admiral of the Port and Chair of Council for the ensuing term of office
